Minutes of the meeting

Date: 17.06.2023

Time: 3:30 PM

Location: Faculty room (Humanities and Sciences)

Proceedings:

The meeting of the Culture and Diversity Cell was called to order at 3:30 pm by the coordinator, Md. Aftab Alam, who welcomed all participants and thanked them for their presence.

Points discussed in the meeting:

The following points were discussed and agreed upon during the meeting:

Spreading positive messages: It was emphasized that the Culture and Diversity Cell should actively engage in spreading positive messages among students, highlighting the importance of cultural diversity and fostering a sense of unity among different cultural groups.

Significance of festivals: It was decided that the cell would organize events and workshops to help students understand the significance of various festivals celebrated by different cultures. The aim is to educate students about the underlying messages and values conveyed by these festivals to society, fostering a deeper appreciation for diverse traditions.

Collaborations and partnerships: The cell discussed the possibility of collaborating with other student bodies, cultural organizations, and academic departments to organize joint events, workshops, and cultural exchanges. This would further enhance cross-cultural interactions and promote a sense of community.

Awareness campaigns: The cell proposed organizing awareness campaigns and interactive sessions to address cultural stereotypes and prejudices, aiming to create a more inclusive and understanding campus environment.

Regular meetings and activities: It was agreed to hold regular meetings to discuss ongoing initiatives, plan future events, and address any concerns related to cultural diversity on campus.

Closing Remarks:

The coordinator thanked all participants for their active participation and valuable inputs during the meeting. It was emphasized that the success of the Culture and Diversity Cell relies on the collective efforts of everyone involved.
