In pursuit of academic excellence and continuous quality enhancement, Vidya Vihar Institute of Technology (VVIT), Purnea is delighted to welcome esteemed academicians as External Members of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC):

Dr. Rajesh Kumar, External Member

Professor, Indian Institute of Technology (IIT) Indore, Group Leader, Materials and Device Lab (MAD Lab)

Dr. Rajesh Kumar, a native of Purnea, Bihar, holds a Ph.D. in Physics from IIT Delhi (2009) and completed his postdoctoral research at the University of Alberta, Canada (2012). He possesses extensive expertise in Materials Science, Nanotechnology, Electrochromic Devices, and Energy Storage and has published over 150 research papers in high-impact journals such as ACS, Nature, IEEE, and Springer. His pioneering work in electrochromic smart windows, hybrid energy storage, and sensing devices has earned him numerous accolades, including the Best Research Paper Award (2021) and Best Technology Development Award (2020).

Dr. Kumar actively collaborates with national and international institutions and mentors Ph.D. and postgraduate students. Passionate about innovation and outreach, he regularly conducts workshops and lectures at IITs, NITs, and global conferences, fostering cutting-edge research and academic excellence.

With the addition Dr. Rajesh Kumar, we look forward to strengthening IQAC's vision for quality improvement, research advancements, and institutional growth at VVIT.

Your role as an External Member will include:

- Providing insights and recommendations to improve academic and administrative processes.
- Assisting in the development of quality benchmarks and best practices for higher education.
- Participating in IQAC meetings and contributing to policy formulation for continuous improvement.
- Offering guidance for accreditation and quality enhancement initiatives.
- Research Collaboration with Vidya Vihar Institute of Technology.
